1. The Czech central police authorities are keeping an eye on anti-state activities of former members of the People's Party in view of the electoral campaign.
2. Early in February 1954 the peripheral (sic) district commands<sup>1</sup> were requested to submit detailed reports on the above-cited activities in general, and on the following points in particular:
  - a. Number of former members of the People's Party incriminated and arrested;
  - b. Number of former members incriminated but not taken into custody;
  - c. Names of former members who were outstanding in anti-state activity, indicating the number of votes obtained in the elections;
  - d. People's Party communications with other organizations;
  - e. Measures taken in the development of investigations on the activity of the People's Party within each district.

Comment. It is not clear whether the reference is to the regional police headquarters (KVNB--Krajske velitelstvi narodni bezpecnosti) or the district headquarters (OVNB--Okresni velitelstvi narodni bezpecnosti).
